Press Biography

Since debuting in 2005, Symphony On The Rocks has entertained sold out audiences around the midwest including the iconic Surf Ball Room in Iowa and Meyer Theatre in Green Bay. Fronted by The Vic Ferrari Band, a nationally acclaimed variety band with over 2300 performances, the seven member band plays crowd favorites from the 60s to today while supported by a 26 person symphony! This is no ordinary symphony concert – this is a symphony driven by technology; Symphony On The Rocks was the first symphony in America use iPads exclusively (instead of traditional music stands) so the audience can connect with every musician on stage. The huge symphony sound is backed by outstanding audio and video production that produces the look and feel of a rock show. Symphony On The Rocks is high energy and excitement like none other.
